

Campaign Asset Inventory

Will your partners contribute these resources and assets to the obesity prevention campaign? If yes, to what extent?	No – our partners don’t have this capacity	No – our partners have this capacity but are not planning to do it for this campaign	Yes – our partners will do this somewhat for this campaign	Yes – our partners will do this a lot for this campaign
SRTS Policy Expertise
SSB Policy Expertise
HFFI Policy Expertise
Priority Population(s) Expertise
Preemption Policy Expertise
Shared Use Policy Expertise
Competitive Food Policy Expertise
Research &amp; Data Collection
Scientific research
Policy research
Population research
Decision-maker target research
Opposition research
Community surveillance to spot problems
Public opinion polling
Assessments on scope of problem
Participatory Action Research (community members gathering data)
Run trainings on specific childhood obesity policy topics
Coalition Building
Secure early and equitable participation of most affected populations
Convene local coalitions

Coalitions with youth inclusion
Convene state coalitions
Convene national coalitions
Convene priority population coalitions
Represent the movement within other coalitions
Run trainings engaging priority populations to help lead and shape coalition work
Grassroots &amp; Grasstops
Volunteers or members in every state that can be trained as advocates
Seasoned advocates in every state that can be segmented by voting district and reached via email
Grassroots staff at state level
Grassroots staff at national level
Grasstops advocates matched to key decision-makers in each state
Run trainings on engaging youth in policy change
Run trainings on engaging and mobilizing advocates online
Run trainings on connecting grassroots to decision-makers
Run trainings on community organizing
Media Advocacy
Issue reports to the public
Tapped as issue expert by the media
Promote state/local policy change through Facebook
Promote state/local policy change through Twitter
Promote state/local policy change through blogs
Lead annual event to focus attention on issue
Trained spokespersons in each state
Run trainings on media advocacy

Message development & reframing opposition arguments
Run spokespersons trainings
Fundraising &amp; Development
Resources for state lobbying
Resources for federal lobbying
Experience raising unrestricted money for policy advocacy
Run trainings on how to raise unrestricted funds for advocacy
Decision-Maker Advocacy
Paid lobbyists in every state
Federal lobbyists
501c4
PAC contributions
Voter education
Experience running state ballot initiatives
Experience with municipal policy change
State government leadership experience
Experience with informing process by which political parties set priorities
Candidate endorsements
Candidate education
Run trainings on what 501c3's can legally do around elections
Run trainings on how policies are changes at the municipal level
Run trainings on how policies are changes at the state legislative level
Run trainings on how policies are changes at the state regulatory level
State policy campaign planning expertise
Local policy campaign planning expertise

Diagnosing Your Coalition

Once you've completed your campaign asset inventory, answer the following questions:

1. Where does your coalition have considerable strengths?
2. Where are the gaps or weaknesses in your campaign assets?
3. Which of these gaps are most essential to fill in order to be successful on your campaign?
4. What organizations might be able and willing to fill those gaps for your campaign?
5. What are your immediate next steps for building your campaign assets?

This document may not be reproduced, distributed, or modified, in whole or in part, without written permission. Copyright © 2013 by Lori Fresina and Diane Pickles.